David Ketterer Joins Our Team of IT Specialists

Garfield Hts., OH (November 16, 2007) – Accellis welcomes David Ketterer to our team of IT specialists. David will be providing technical support for our Help Desk in Garfield Hts. office.

David's extensive background in the IT industry has prepared him for a successful career with Accellis. As a graduate from ITT Technical Institute in Strongsville, Ohio, Dave began his career as a Help Desk Manager in a facet of the financial industry for five years.

We know that Dave will be providing an invaluable service to our Networking and Managed Services clients, ensuring they are equipped with the knowledge, security and support they deserve for their employees and IT environments. "I plan to help Accellis in its continual growth as an award winning Managed Services Provider."

Accellis Technology Group is a full-service consulting, managed network services and software solutions firm delivering first rate technology solutions to its network of legal, healthcare, financial, real estate, retail and professional clients in Ohio and throughout the country.
